

Church School P-T-A Celebrates Half-Century of Active Progress

During the 50th anniversary program of the Church School Parent-Teachers association held here recently, past principals of the school were honored. Among them were, left to right, Mrs. Ray Tucker, Charles Armour, William Kreider, and Harry C. Muth, shown here glancing over the evening's program.

Many former students also showed up for the occasion. Above are, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Simonds, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen F. Marston. Both couples have children who are now attending the school. Refreshments were served by the past president's association.

Reminiscing about bygone days was this group of teachers and former teachers. They are, left to right, Mrs. Peers Ray, the former Elizabeth Stocking; Alva Hassell, first grade teacher; and Bernadine Nelson, who teaches third and sixth grade arithmetic. A skit, "Guard Well They Trust" highlighted the meeting. (Staff Photos.)
